EXTERIOR AND GARDENS

Barncliffe Mews is a private road that is accessed by electric wrought iron gates, which open to a block paved road providing access to the four properties within the development. Electric gates open to Carnoustie House.

To the front of the property, there is a block paved driveway that provides ample parking with exterior lighting and a water tap. To each side of the driveway there are gravel borders comprising trees and flowers. Access can be gained to the main entrance door and integral double garage.

From the driveway, timber sleeper steps with gravel insets and planted borders to each side lead down to a stone flagged seating terrace. The terrace is partially covered by a wooden bar/seating area with fitted benches and an external power point. Adjacent to the terrace is an area with artificial grass and raised timber sleeper borders containing mature shrubs and flowers. From the terrace, timber sleeper steps with gravel insets lead down to a stepping stone path that is flanked by bark and mature trees and leads to a stone flagged area that houses a garden store.

Garden Store

Having glazed windows and providing a superb storage space.

From the front, access can be gained to the right side of the property where a path with provision for an electric car charging point leads to a timber pedestrian gate. The gate opens to stone flagged steps with a water tap, which rise to the rear.

To the rear, there is a stone flagged patio with external power points and being bordered by a raised timber sleeper rockery that is well-stocked with a range of mature shrubs and flowers. StepBullets rise to a further stone flagged area with exterior lighting and further steps rise to give access to the dining kitchen. A pedestrian gate also opens to Barncliffe Mews. Timber sleeper steps with gravel insets rise to an artificial lawn with exterior lighting and raised stone borders. The garden is enclosed by mature hedging and fencing, providing security and privacy to this wonderful family home.
